Till Ready

France, ——— we owe a debt to you, — France, ——— we're going to pay it too, —
 France, ——— you've put us to the test, — France, ——— you know we'll do our best, —

We can't for - get _____ Your La - fa - yette _____ The deed he did for Wash - ing - ton re - No - thing's too small _____ Give one and all _____ From pen - nies up to mil - lions we will mains with us yet, — France, — to us you've been so true, — So here's what we will do: — an - swer your call, — France, we'll gladly do our share — To help you "o - ver there." —

CHORUS

First we'll send our sons and our might - y guns, Then vic-t'ry will come from a - bove, _____ We will re - plant each field, So it will yield The fruits of our broth - er - ly love, _____ All your shat - tered dreams we'll mend In A - mer - i - ca you'll find a friend, _____ And we'll send our gold a - cross the o - cean blue, France, we'll re - build your towns for you. _____ First we'll you. _____

Refrain (with much expression)

One day in June You're going to feel blue some One day in June, You're going to feel blue When you hear those bells ring, ing. And you're going to hear them too. That's the time you feel blue And I'll feel too
One day in June That's the time you'll feel blue
